

Chef in a resort in Canada

From May for a period of 6 – 12 months

Ref. 3201

Company & Job Details:

The resort is located in northern Canada, BC and less than 20 minutes from Hudson's Hope, BC. It is a traditionally styled log home and built from a famous log home builder company. It's hand-hewn pine logs showcase the wood's natural beauty. The lodge could be considered both a feat of engineering and a work of art. The lobby with its cozy stone fireplace, is the perfect place to relax. Lake and mountain views can be enjoyed from the restaurant. European inspired dishes feature on the daily menu.

The job offer:

The kitchen is rustic and home cooking. Of course, you are also welcome to let off steam with them and refine the kitchen with your own cooking skills. They are happy about a travel-loving cook who would like to gain experience abroad.

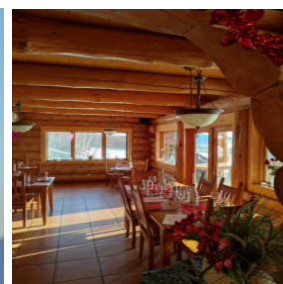

Requirements:

- Apprenticeship as a cook or two years of professional experience as a cook
- Age 18 +
- English language skills
- Driving license for car (B)
- Experience in the kitchen area

What is offered:

- Accommodation, salary, and a family-like, humorous environment
- Valuable life experience
