

Trainee in New Zealand

June/July until May next year or even longer

Company & Job Details:

We are a young family with two small children, my husband is originally from Holland and I'm from Switzerland. We also have two goats, a Great Dane, and a cat. We are 40 minutes from Christchurch, 20 minutes from the mountains, 30 minutes from the beach, so very central.

The job offer:

If you are tired of barn work in Switzerland, you are just right here in New Zealand. The cows are on pasture all year round. We milk 950 cows on 250 hectares through a fully automatic 54 carousel. A lot of work is done by motorcycle but there is also tractor work. Mid July to mid-October we have seasonal calving, all 950 cows/cattle calve during this time. You will work about 50 hours a week and have two days off a week.

After calving season, we are more flexible, and you can take more time off to travel.

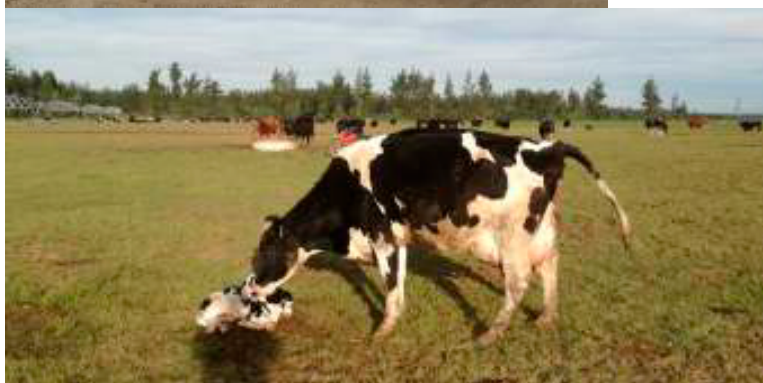

Requirements:

- Age 18-30
- English language skills
- Driving license for car (B)
- You need either an education as a farmer or at least one year of experience in agriculture

What is offered:

The hourly wage of 17.70 NZ Dollars is paid every second Friday, from which the house rent, electricity and internet are deducted.
