

trainee in Scotland

Immediately for a period of 12 - 18 months

Company & Job Details:

Are you looking for a holistic, ecologically rewarding, mixed farming role where you'll work productively alongside nature? We have the rare opportunities to join and lead the farm team, near Dumfries. These roles would suit individuals at different stages of their farming career. We are a small land-based Community working with adults with learning disabilities. We have two farms - one dairy, one beef and sheep. There are different ways in which you could join us.

The job offer:

We are a small land-based community working with adults with learning disabilities. Your tasks will include all farm, stable and field work.

Requirements:

These roles would suit individuals at different stages of their farming career.

- Age 18-30
- English language skills
- Driving license for car (B)
- Preferably an education in agriculture or sufficient experience in agriculture

What is offered:

- Fair and competitive compensation depending on experience
- Varied and interesting projects and moreover with a positive team

Please send applications directly to: info@studyworktravel.ch